PREFACE

ITHIN a few months of the organization of His restored Church, the Lord directed that Emma Smith, wife of the Prophet Joseph Smith, should make a selection of sacred hymns for use by the Saints in their worshipping assemblies. "My soul delighteth in the song of the heart," said the Lord in this revelation. "Yea, the song of the righteous is a prayer unto me, and it shall be answered with a blessing upon their heads." Since those early days the singing of sacred hymns has been an important part of the meetings in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latterday Saints.

Among members of the Church were inspired hymn writers. Many of their songs were sung in times of joy and sorrow, cheering the Saints in their pioneer journeys, and strengthening them in their trials and tribulations. They became characteristic of the missionaries of the Church who traveled far and wide, and were a source of faith and consolation, encouragement and strength. Today as they are sung they add fervor to our meetings and provide inspiration for all who sing them or hear them sung.

From time to time since the days of Emma Smith, various compilations of hymns have been made to meet the changing needs of the Church. This present book is the latest and probably the most complete yet made for general use among the Latter-day Saints. It is planned that this volume will be used for all adult gatherings in the Church. Another book is provided for young people and children.

In this collection, in addition to arrangements provided for general congregational singing, special arrangements of many of our favorite songs are included for choirs, for men's voices and for women's voices.

The work of compilation was done by the General Music Committee of the Church, under the guidance of the First Presidency and the Council of the Twelve. An effort was made to include all of the hymns which have become favorites with the members of the Church down through the years. In addition, a number of new songs, both words and music, were written especially for this book. New settings have been provided for old words in some cases. A study was likewise made of great hymns used in the world at large, and some of these have been included in the volume. The entire work, including the preparation of the index, has been done with a view toward simplicity, in the hope that the book would meet the varied needs of the greatest number in the Church.

The wide use of this book is earnestly recommended. It is hoped that these songs will provide a means whereby faith, devotion, prayer, and other principles of the restored gospel may be taught. It is for that purpose it is provided. Musical directors, choristers and organists generally are urged to keep this purpose in mind as they prepare music for our religious services, and plan such music as will contribute to an increase of faith among the people.

FOREWORD

The hymns in this book are in four general classifications: for congregation, choir, men's voices and women's voices. Except for those in the congregational section all hymns are designated as for "choir," "men's voices" or "women's voices" under the hymn title.

In the hymns arranged for men's voices, the tenor, or C clef, is used for the two upper parts. In this clef middle C is found on the third space and the parts should, therefore, be played and sung one octave lower than if they were written in the treble clef.

It will be noted by the index that many hymns are found in more than one arrangement. For this reason care should be taken that the organist uses the same arrangement as the singers and that the proper arrangement is used for the type of group singing it. For example: "women's voices" would be used for Relief Society, or other groups of women; "men's voices" for Priesthood gatherings; "congregation" and "choir" for Sunday School, Sacrament Meetings and all mixed groups of men and women.

5 As Swiftly My Days Go Out On the Wing

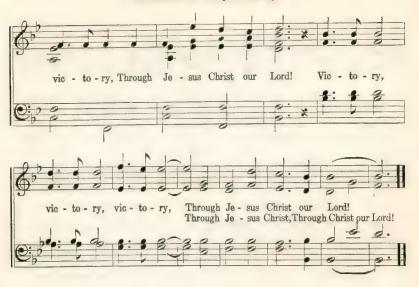

Beautiful Zion for Me

Behold! A Royal Army

8 God, Our Father, Hear Us Pray

11 Come All Ye Saints and Sing His Praise

- In Zion let his name be praised
 Who has a feast prepared,
 The glorious gospel standard raised,
 The ancient faith restored.
- Swift heralds, the glad news to bear,
 O'er land and ocean fly;
 And to the wond'ring world declare
 The message from on high.
- Ye nations of the earth, attend!
 Let kings and princes hear,
 And all the powers of darkness bend,
 Messiah's reign is near.
- The Savior comes! Ye Saints, be pure, And fix your hearts on high; Lift up your heads, rejoice, for your Redemption draweth nigh.

12 Come, All Ye Saints Who Dwell on Earth

12-A Sweet Is the Hour When Thus We Meet

Evan Stephens

- 1 Sweet is the hour when thus we meet Around the sacred board, And each the other kindly greet While worshipping the Lord, And each the other kindly greet While worshipping the Lord.
- 2 Sweet are the songs we gladly sing In harmony and love, The echo of diviner things Heard in the courts above, The echo of diviner things Heard in the courts above.
- 3 Lord, may we have Thy Spirit pure To hallow every deed, That when we part we may be sure We have been blest indeed, That when we part we may be sure We have been blest indeed.

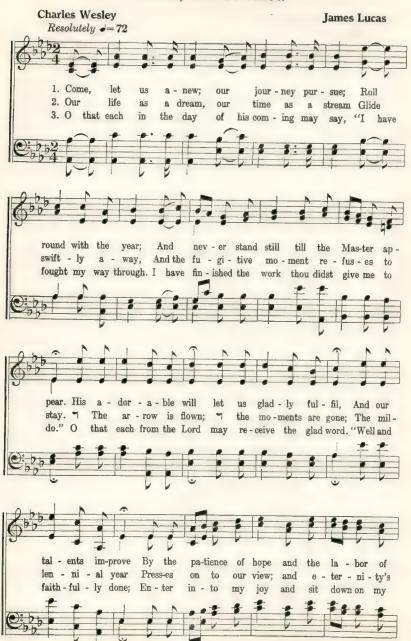

- 5 We must the onward path pursue As wider fields expand to view, And follow Him unceasingly Whate'er our lot or sphere may be.
- 6 For thrones, dominions, kingdoms, powers, And glory great and bliss are ours If we, throughout eternity, Obey his words, "Come, follow me."

16 Come, Hail the Cause of Zion's Youth

21 Think not, When You Gather to Zion

Think not, When You Gather to Zion

22

Come Unto Jesus

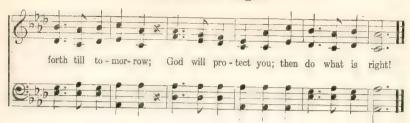

Dear to the Heart of the Shepherd

30 Earth, With Her Ten Thousand Flowers

31 Ere You Left Your Room This Morning

Farewell, All Earthly Honors

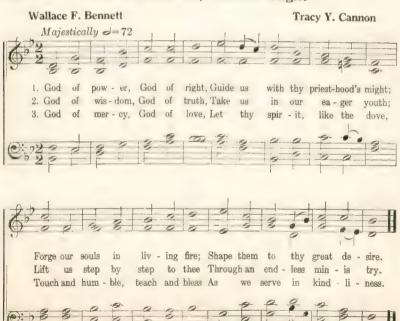

Farewell, All Earthly Honors

- 4. All earthly tribulations
 Are but a moment here;
 And then if we prove faithful,
 A righteous crown we'll wear.
 We shall be counted worthy
 To mingle with the good,
 And minister in glory
 Before the throne of God.
- 5. There Christ himself has promised A mansion to prepare,
 And all who love and serve him
 The victor's wreath shall wear.
 Bright crowns shall then be given
 To all the ransomed throng,
 And glory! glory! glory!
 Shall be the conqu'ror's song.

41 Father in Heaven, We Do Believe

Jane Romney Crawford

- O Lord, accept us while we pray, And all our sins forgive;
 New life impart to us this day And bid the sinners live
- 5 Baptize us with the Holy Ghost
 And seal us as thine own
 That we may join the ransomed host,
 And with the saints be one.

Ioel H. Johnson

- And we for them can be baptized, Yes, for our friends most dear, That they can with the just be raised When Gabriel's trump they hear;
- That they may come with Christ again When he to earth descends,
 A thousand years with him to reign,
 And with their earthly friends.
- Now, O ye Saints, rejoice today
 That you can saviors be
 Of all your dead who will obey
 The gospel and be free.
- Then let us rise without restraint
 And act for those we love,
 For they are giving their consent
 And wait for us to move.

- His purposes will ripen fast, Unfolding every hour;
 The bud may have a bitter taste, But sweet will be the flower.
- Blind unbelief is sure to err
 And scan his works in vain;
 God is his own interpreter,
 And he will make it plain.

50 God of Our Fathers, We Come Unto Thee

52 From All That Dwell below the Skies

54 God of Our Fathers, Whose Almighty Hand

- 5 Still mould'ring lie thy leveled walls And ruin stalks along thy halls. And brooding o'er thy ruined towers Such desolation sternly lowers, That when we muse upon thy woe, The gushing tears of sorrow flow!
- 6 And while we toil through wretched life And drink the bitter cup of strife, Until we yield our weary breath, And sleep released from woe in death, Will Zion in our memory stand— Our lost, our ruined native land.

Of Christ, my Lord; his name alone
I plead for pardon, gracious God,
And kind acceptance at thy throne.

With sleep refresh my feeble frame.
Safe in thy care may I repose
And wake with praises to thy name.

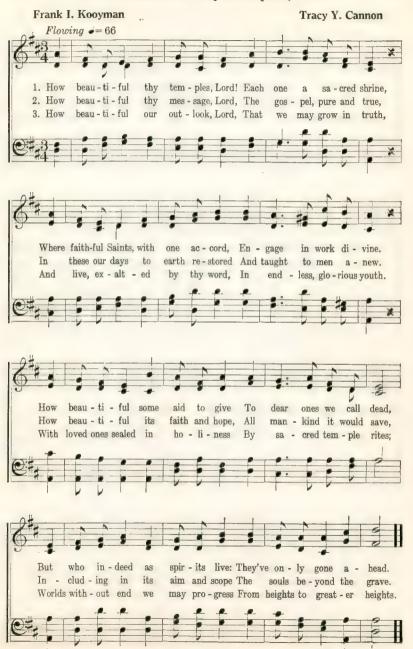

5 Then hail to Deseret!

A refuge for the good,
And safety for the great,
If they but understood
That God with plagues will shake the world
Till all its thrones shall down be hurled.

6 In Deseret doth truth
Rear up its royal head;
Though nations may oppose,
Still wider it shall spread;
Yes, truth and justice, love and grace,
In Deseret find ample place.

How Firm a Foundation

- 4. When through the deep waters I call thee to go, The rivers of sorrow shall not thee o'erflow, For I will be with thee, thy troubles to bless, And sanctify to thee thy deepest distress.
- 5. When through fiery trials thy pathway shall lie, My grace, all sufficient, shall be thy supply. The fiame shall not hurt thee; I only design Thy dross to consume and thy gold to refine.
- 6. E'en down to old age, all my people shall prove. My sovereign, eternal, unchangeable love; And then, when gray hair shall their temples adorn, Like lambs shall they still in my bosom be borne.
- 7. The soul that on Jesus hath leaned for repose. I will not, I cannot, desert to his foes; That soul, though all hell should endeavor to shake, I'll never, no never, no never forsake!

67 How Gentle God's Commands

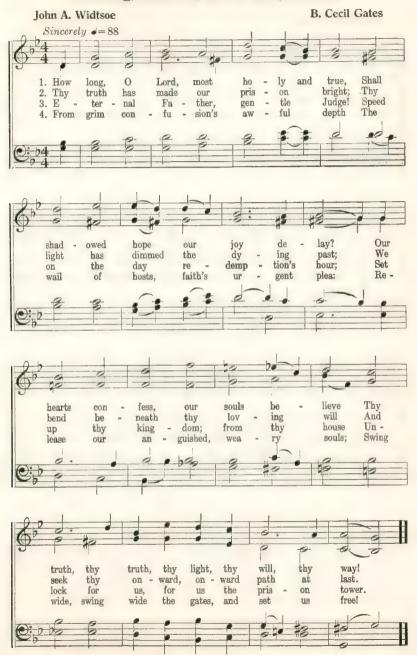

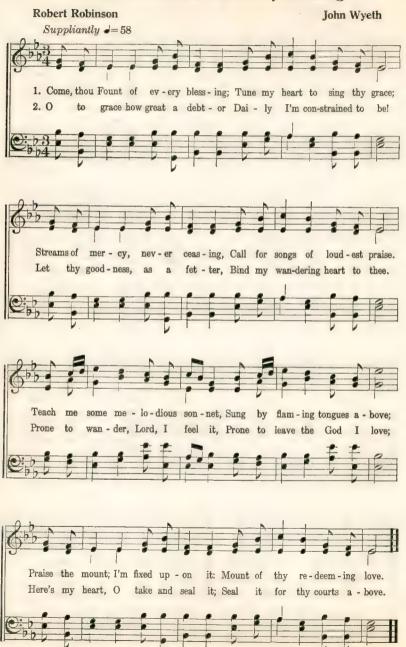

- 5. How great, how glorious, how complete, Redemption's grand design,
 - Where justice, love, and mercy meet In harmony divine!
- 6. In memory of the broken flesh We eat the broken bread; And witness with the cup, afresh, Our faith in Christ, our Head.

69 How Long, O Lord, Most Holy and True

Jesus, Lover of My Soul

88 Jesus, Once of Humble Birth

- May we no more our powers abuse, But ways of truth and goodness choose; Our God is pleased when we improve His grace and seek his perfect love.
- 5. It is my free will to believe; 'Tis God's free will me to receive; To stubborn willers this I'll tell, 'Tis all free grace and all free will.
- Those who despise grow harder still:
 If they adhere, he turns their will;
 And thus despisers sink to hell,
 While those who heed in glory dwell.
- But if we take the downward road, And make in hell our last abode, Our God is clear; and we shall know We plunged ourselves in endless woe.

91 Let Each Man Learn to Know Himself

Let Each Man Learn to Know Himself

Gently Raise the Sacred Strain

- Happy type of things to come, When the Saints are gathered home To praise the Lord In eternity of bliss, All as one with sweet accord.
- Holy, holy is the Lord; Precious, precious is his word; Repent and live; Though your sins be crimson red; Oh, repent, and he'll forgive.
- 6. Softly sing the joyful lay, For the Saints to fast and pray! As God ordains, For his goodness and his love, While the Sabbath day remains.

93 Let Earth's Inhabitant's Rejoice

Let Us Oft Speak Kind Words

99 In Memory of the Crucified

102 Though in the Outward Church Below

- 4. We seem alike when here we meet; Strangers may think we are all wheat; But to the Lord's all-searching eyes, Each heart appears without disguise.
- The tares are spared for various ends, Some for the sake of praying friends, Others the Lord against their will, Employs, his counsels to fulfil.
- 6. But though they grow so tall and strong, His plan will not require them long; In harvest, when he saves his own, The tares shall into hell be thrown.
- O! awful thought, and is it so?
 Must all mankind the harvest know?
 Is every man a wheat or tare?
 Me for the harvest, Lord, prepare.

The Lord Is My Light

- 5. The Lord is my light; his way is straight and clear; It leads to life eternal; I know the Lord is near. He will not forsake me, if I will show my love And walk along the narrow road that leads to heaven above.
- 6. The Lord is my light; and though my spirit fail Because of sin and sorrow, God's plan will yet prevail. I know he will hear me and answer every plea For guidance to my heavenly home where joy will ever be.
- 7. The Lord is my light; his Spirit seeks no rest; His love is ever with me; it fills my troubled breast. He gives me direction no matter where I roam; His beacon of eternal love will guide me safely home.
- 8. The Lord is my light, and when I kneel to pray I feel his presence near me, my fear all fades away. I'll sing loud his praises; I'll honor his great name, He is my God, my Savior, King, eternally the same.

Now Let Us Rejoice

119 Lord, We Ask Thee, Ere We Part

- 4. A thousand ages in thy sight
 Are like an evening gone;
 Short as the watch that ends the night
 Before the rising sun.
- O God, our help in ages past, Our hope for years to come, Be thou our guide while life shall last And our eternal home.

- 4. Or if, on joyful wing Cleaving the sky, Sun, moon, and stars forgot, Upward I fly, Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God to thee, Nearer to thee!
- 5. Then with my waking thoughts
 Bright with thy praise,
 Out of my stony griefs
 Bethel I'll raise;
 So by my woes to be
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer, my God, to thee,
 Nearer to thee!

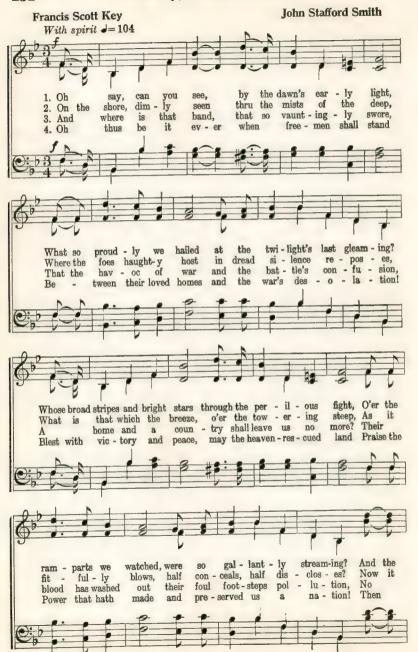

Oh Say, Can You See!

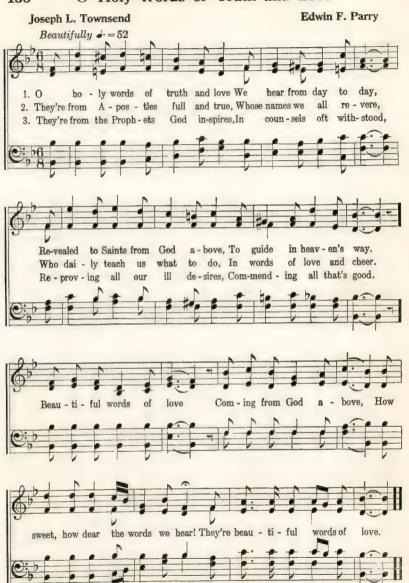

134 Oh Hark! A Glorious Sound Is Heard

- And from each chosen one that speaks
 By aid the Spirit gives,

 For every sphere of life it seeks,
 For every one that lives.
- As gems of wisdom, pure and bright,
 That glow with lustrous ray,
 We'll seek to gain these words of light,
 Their counsels to obey.

144-A Our God, We Raise to Thee

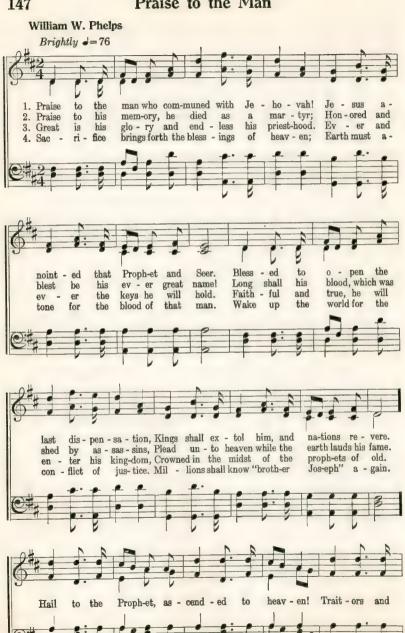

Alternate words by B. Snow

- Our God, we raise to thee Thanks for thy blessings free We here enjoy, We here enjoy.
 In this far western land, A true and chosen band, Led hither by thy hand, We sing for joy.
- Bless thou our prophet dear;
 May health and comfort cheer
 His noble heart,
 His words with fire impress;
 On souls that thou wilt bless
 To choose in righteousness,
 The better way.
- 3. So shall thy Kingdom spread
 As by thy prophets said
 From sea to sea,
 From sea to sea;
 As one united whole
 Truth burns in every soul
 While hastening to the goal
 We long to see.
- 4. Oh, may thy Saints be one, Like Father and the Son, Nor disagree, Nor disagree. United heart and hand, So may they ever stand, A firm and valiant band, Eternally.

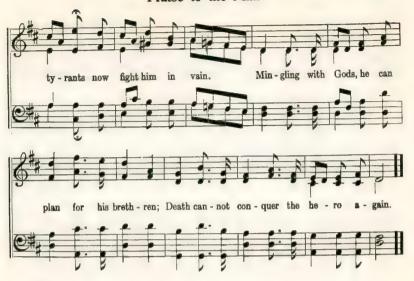

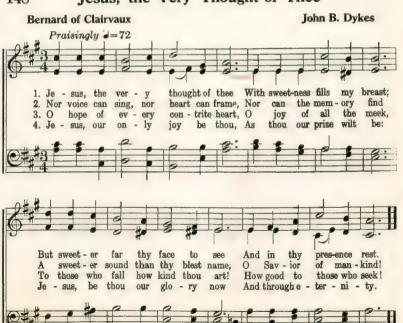

Praise to the Man

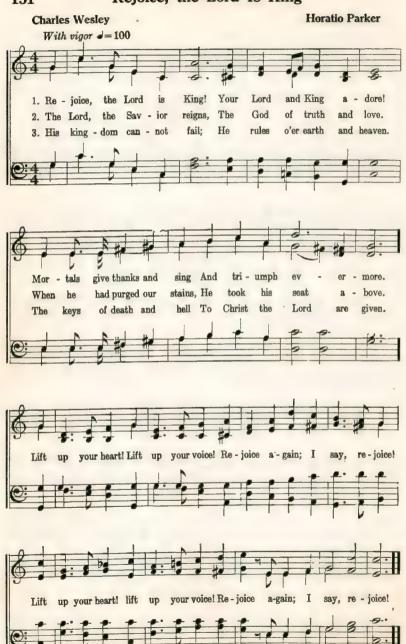

148 Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee

149 Praise the Lord With Heart and Voice

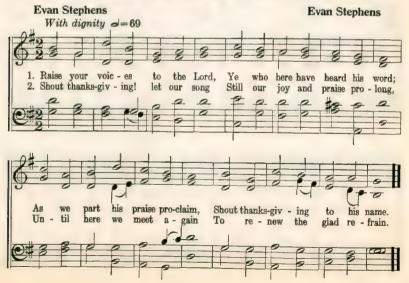

A Poor Wayfaring Man of Grief

- 4. 'Twas night; the floods were out; it blew A winter hurricane aloof: I heard his voice abroad and flew To bid him welcome to my roof. I warmed and clothed and cheered my guest And laid him on my couch to rest, Then made the earth my bed and seemed In Eden's garden while I dreamed.
- 7. Then in a moment to my view 5. Stript, wounded, beaten nigh to death. I found him by the highway side I roused his pulse, brought back his breath Revived his spirit, and supplied Wine, oil, refreshment, he was healed; I had myself a wound concealed, But from that hour forgot the smart, And peace bound up my broken heart.
- 6. In prison I saw him next, condemned To meet a traitor's doom at morn: The tide of lying tongues I stemmed, And honored him 'mid shame and scorn My friendship's utmost zeal to try. He asked if I for him would die; The flesh was weak; my blood ran chill: But the free spirit cried, "I will!"
 - The stranger started from disguise; The tokens in his hands I knew: The Savior stood before mine eyes. He spake, and my poor name he named. "Of me thou hast not been ashamed: These deeds shall thy memorial be, Fear not, thou didst them unto me."

154 Raise Your Voices to the Lord

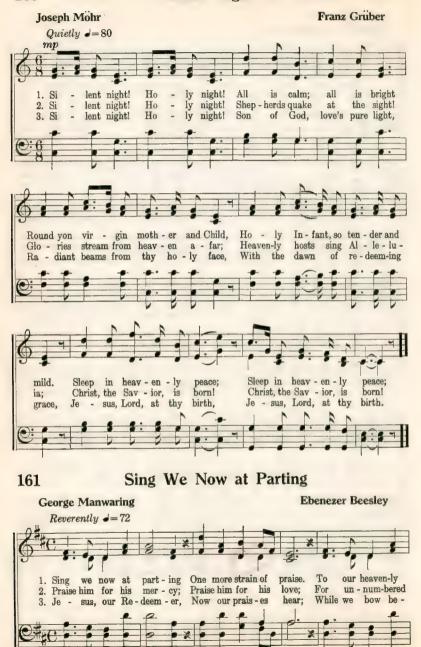

Shall the Youth of Zion Falter?

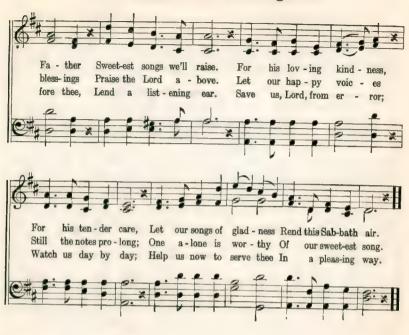

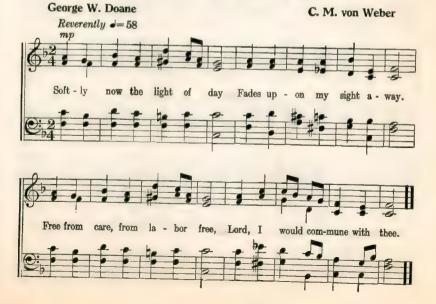

Sing We Now at Parting

162 Softly Now the Light of Day

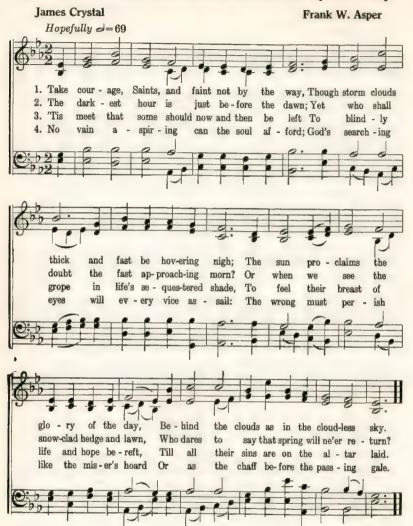

- Thus may we each moment feel;
 Love him, serve him, praise him still,
 Till we meet on Zion's hill,
 Till we meet on Zion's hill,
 To praise the Lamb.
- 6. Savior, let thy kingdom come; Now the man of sin consume, Bring the blest millenium; Bring the blest millenium, Exalted Lamb!

167 Take Courage, Saints, and Faint Not by the Way

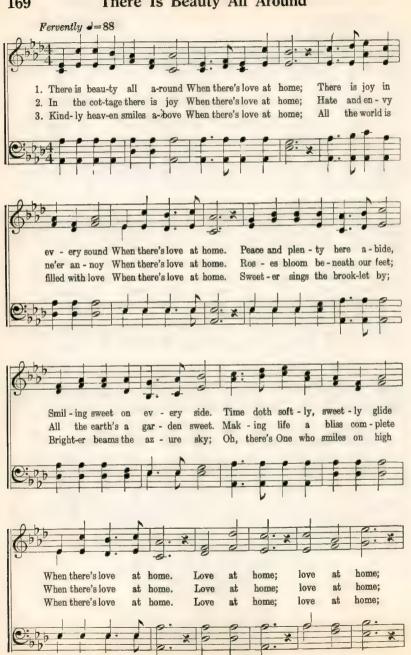

- 5. God knows the proper path to lead us in. And what is best that we should do and know To win the victory over death and sin, And fit us for the reign below.
- 6. Let not the heart be sad at trials here, But sense how e'en the Savior suffered ill; He bore the cruel thorn, the galling spear, To glorify his Father's holy will.

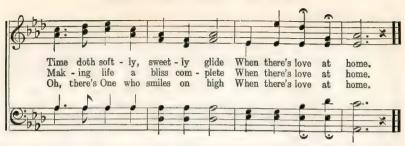

168 Sweet Is the Work, My God, My King

- Sin, my worst enemy before, Shall vex my eyes and ears no more. My inward foes shall all be slain Nor Satan break my peace again.
- 6. Then shall I see and hear and know All I desired and wished below, And every power find sweet employ In that eternal world of joy.

174 There's Sunshine in My Soul Today

Who's on The Lord's Side?

- And may pollution ne'er have place
 Within this shrine we give;
 And in it through the years to come,
 Awake the dead to live;
- Live to thy kingdom; live to thee
 While life shall pass away;
 Then greet again with praise and song,
 In heaven's eternal day.

 Partaking now is deed for word

180 We Give Thee But Thine Own

- 5. "Tis meet to die as he has died, He smiled amid death's conquered gloom. While angels waited by his side, To bear a kindred spirit home.
- 6. Vain are the trophies wealth can give! His memory needs no sculptor's art; He's left a name—his virtues live, 'Graved on the tablets of the heart.

182 Hail to the Brightness of Zion's Glad Morning

183 Awake! O Ye People, the Savior is Coming

Awake! O Ye People, the Savior is Coming

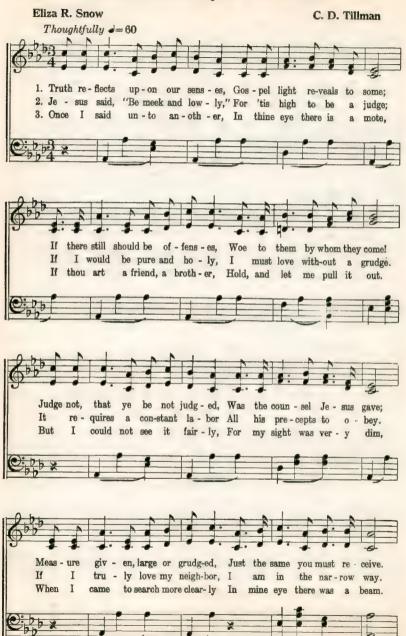

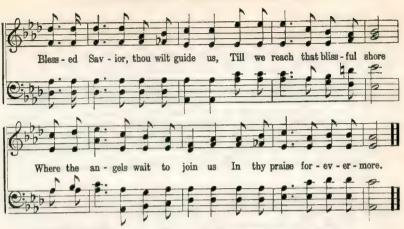

- And, hand o'er hand, the rod along,
 Through each succeeding day,
 With earnest prayer and hopeful song,
 We'll still pursue our way.
- Afar we see the golden rest.
 To which the rod will guide,
 Where, with the angels bright and blest,
 Forever we'll abide.

187 'Tis Sweet to Sing the Matchless Love

Truth Reflects Upon Our Senses

- 4. If I love my brother dearer,
 And his mote I would erase,
 Then the light should shine the clearer,
 For the eye's a tender place.
 Others I have off reproved,
 For an object like a mote,
 Now I wish this beam removed,
- 5. Charity and love are healing;
 These will give the clearest sight;
 When I saw my brother's failing,
 I was not exactly right.
 Now I'll take no further trouble;
 Jesus' love is all my theme;
 Little motes are but a bubble
 When I think upon the beam.

Welcome, Welcome Sabbath Morning

191 Sweet is the Peace the Gospel Brings

- May we who know the Sacred Name From every sin depart, Then will the spirit's constant flame Preserve us pure in heart.
- Ere long the tempter's power will cease, And sin no more annoy, No wrangling sects disturb our peace, Or mar our heartfelt joy.
- That which we have in part received Will be in part no more,
 For he, in whom we all believe
 To us will all restore.
- In patience, then, let us possess
 Our souls till he appear,
 On to our mark of calling press.
 Redemption draweth near.

- 5. Restore, my dear Savior, the light of thy face; Thy soul-cheering comfort impart; And let the sweet longing for thy holy place Bring hope to my desolate heart.
- 6. He looks! and ten thousands of angels rejoice, And myriads wait for his word; He speaks! and eternity, filled with his voice, Re-echoes the praise of the Lord.

When First the Glorious Light of Truth

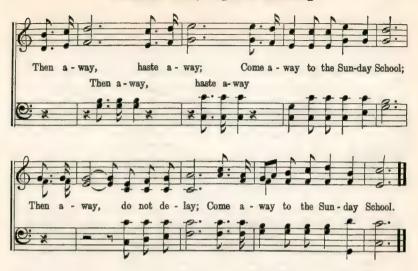

- 5. And here in these sweet peaceful vales The shafts of death are hurled, And many faithful Saints are called Unto a better world. And friends are ofttimes weeping For friends who've passed away, And in their graves are sleeping Till the resurrection day!
- 6. Why should we mourn because we leave
 These scenes of toil and pain?
 Oh, happy change, the righteous go
 Celestial crowns to gain!
 And soon we all shall follow
 To realms of endless day
 And taste the joys and glories
 Of a ressurrection day!

- Both Africa's and India's plains
 Must hear the tidings as they roll
 Where darkness rules and sorrow reigns
 And tyranny has held control.
- 5 Give ear, ye isles in every zone,
 For every land must hear the sound!
 And tongues and nations long unknown
 Since they were lost shall soon be found.
- And then again shall Asia hear
 Where angels first the news revealed
 Eternity the record bear,
 And earth a joyful tribute yield.
- The nations catch the pleasing sound, And Jew and Gentile swell the strain. Hosanna o'er the earth resound; Messiah then will come to reign.

While of These Emblems We Partake

218 We'll Sing All Hail to Jesus' Name

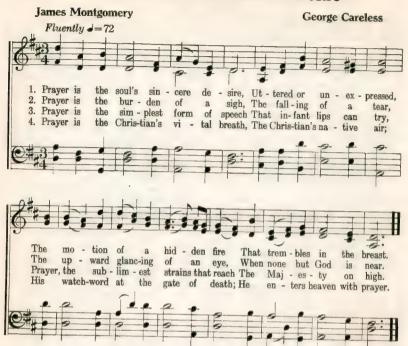

- 5. The sacrament the soul inspires And calms the human breast. Points to the time when faithful Saints Shall enter into rest.
- 6. Then hail, all hail, to such a Prince Who saves us by his blood! He's marked the way and bids us tread The path that leads to God.

I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day 219

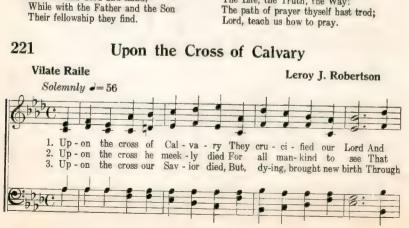

- 4. Then pealed the bells more loud and deep: 5. Till, ringing, singing, on its way, "God is not dead, nor doth he sleep; The wrong shall fall, the right prevail, With peace on earth, good will to men."
 - The world revolved from night to day, A voice, a chime; a chant sublime, Of peace on earth, good will to men!

220 Prayer Is the Soul's Sincere Desire

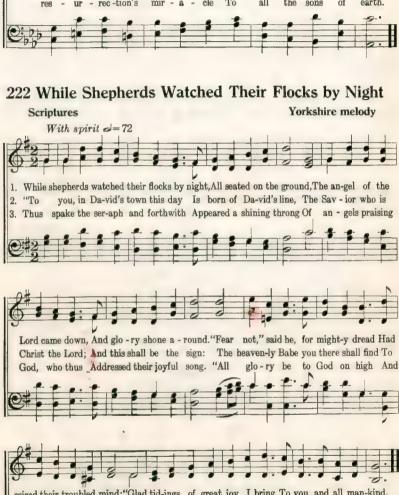

- 5. Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice. Returning from his ways. While angels in their songs rejoice, And cry, "Behold, he prays!"
- 6. The Saints in prayer appear as one In word and deed and mind.
- 7. Nor prayer is made on earth alone: The Holy Spirit pleads, And Jesus at the Father's throne. For sinners intercedes.
- 8. Oh, thou by whom we come to God, The Life, the Truth, the Way!

Upon the Crown of Calvary

seized their troubled mind;"Glad tid-ings of great joy I bring To you and all man-kind. hu - man view displayed, All meanly wrapped in swathing bands, And in a man-ger laid." the earth be peace. Good will henceforth from heaven to men Begin and never cease."

- 4. Jerusalem shall be Our great Redeemer's throne O'er all the earth and sea, His glory be made known; Messiah, kings and nations greet And lay their honors at his feet.
- Strike, strike the golden lyre, And ye his angels sing.
 Let joy your bosoms fire And heaven with glory ring;
 From earth and air and sea and skies
 Let our Redeemer's praise arise.

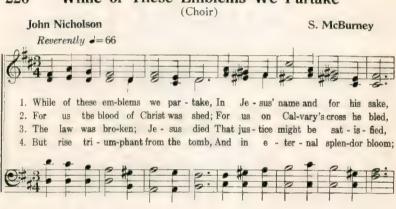

- 4. The time is now fulfilled,
 The long expected day;
 Let earth obedience yield
 And darkness flee away;
 Remove the seals; be wide unfurled
 Its light and glory to the world;
 Remove the seals; be wide unfurled
 Its light and glory to the world.
- 5. Lo, Israel filled with joy Shall now be gathered home; Their wealth and means employ To build Jerusalem, While Zion shall arise and shine And fill the earth with truth divine. While Zion shall arise and shine. And fill the earth with truth divine.

Arise, O Glorious Zion

- 5. From Zion's favored dwelling
 The gospel issues forth,
 The covenant revealing
 To gather all the earth;
 And Saints, the message bringing
 To all the sons of men,
 With the redeemed, shall, singing
 To Zion come again.
- 6. O hear the proclamation
 And fly as on the wind!
 For righteous indignation
 Shall desolate mankind!
 Then, Zion, men shall prize thee
 And bow before thy shrine;
 And they who now despise thee
 Shall own thy light divine.
- 7. Through painful tribulation
 We walk the narrow road
 And battle with temptation,
 To gain that blest abode.
 But patient, firm endurance
 With glory in our view
 The Spirit's bright assurance
 Will bring us conquerors through.
- 8. O grant, Eternal Father,
 That we may faithful be,
 With all the just to gather,
 And thy salvation see!
 Then, with the hosts of heaven,
 We'll sing the immortal theme:
 To him be glory given,
 Whose blood did us redeem.

226 While of These Emblems We Partake

Let us re-mem-ber and be sure Our hearts and hands are clean and pure.

And thus dis-pelled the aw-ful gloom, That else were this cre - a-tion's doom.

That man might not re-main the slave Of death, of hell, or of the grave.

Freed from the power of death and pain With Christ the Lord, to rule and reign.

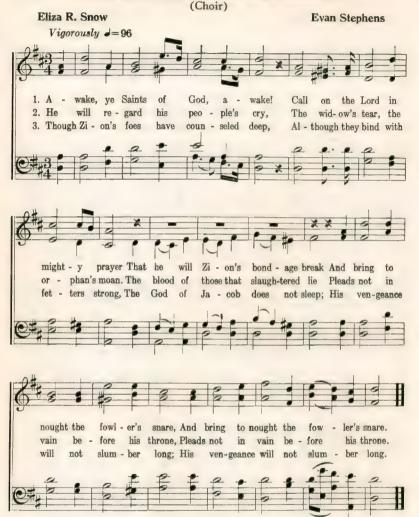

4. The Father hears him pray,
His dear Annointed One;
He cannot turn away
From his beloved Son;
His Spirit answers to the blood
And tells me I am born of God.

To God I'm reconciled;
 His pardoning voice I hear;
 He owns me for his child;
 I can no longer fear.
 With confidence I now draw nigh,
 And "Father, Abba, Father," cry.

- The things unknown to feeble sense;
 Unseen by reason's glimmering ray,
 With strong, commanding evidence,
 Their heavenly origin display.
- Faith lends its realizing light,
 The clouds disperse; the shadows fly,
 Th' invisible appears in sight.
 And God is seen by mortal eye.

Awake, Ye Saints of God, Awake!

- Then let your souls be stayed on God,
 A glorious scene is drawing nigh;
 Though tempests gather like a flood,
 The storm, though fierce, will soon pass by.
- With constant faith and fervent prayer, With deep humility of soul, With steadfast mind and heart prepare, To see th' eternal purpose roll.
- Our God in judgement will come near;
 His mighty arm he will make bare.
 For Zion's sake he will appear;
 Then, O ye Saints, awake, prepare!

For the Strength of the Hills

- 5. We are watchers of a beacon
 Whose light must never die;
 We are guardians of an altar
 'Midst the silence of the sky.
 Here the rocks yield founts of courage,
 Struck forth as by thy rod:
 For the strength of the hills we bless thee
 Our God, our fathers' God.

 And the beetling crags o'erhead;
 For the snows and for the torrents,
 And for our burial sod;
 For the strength of the hills we bless thee
 Our God, our fathers' God.

 Of the Eternal Diety,

 From sin and sorrow and the grave.
- Bless us, O Lord, for Jesus' sake;
 O may we worthily partake
 These emblems of the flesh and blood
 Of our Redeemer, Savior, God.

Giorious Things Are Sung of Zion

244 Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken

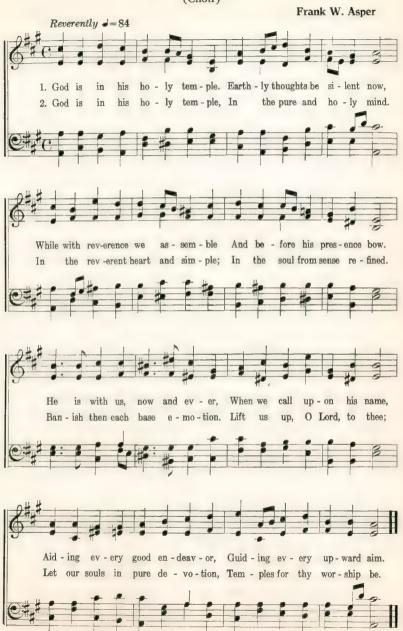

- Round each habitation hovering, See the cloud and fire appear For a glory and a covering, Showing that the Lord is near.
- Blest inhabitants of Zion,
 Purchased by the Savior's blood;
 Jesus, whom their souls rely on,
 Makes them kings and Priests to God.
- While in love his Saints he raises, With himself to reign as King; All, as priests, his solemn praises For thank-offerings freely bring.
- Fading are all worldly treasures
 With their boasted pomp and show;
 Heavenly joys and lasting pleasures,
 None but Zion's children know.

- 4. Let your heart be not faint Now the journey's begun; There is One who still beckons to you. Look upward in gladness And take hold of his hand, He will lead you to heights that are new.
- 5. A land holy and pure Where all trouble doth end, And your life shall be free from all sin, Where no tears shall be shed For no sorrows remain; Take his hand and with him enter in.

Go, Ye Messengers of Glory

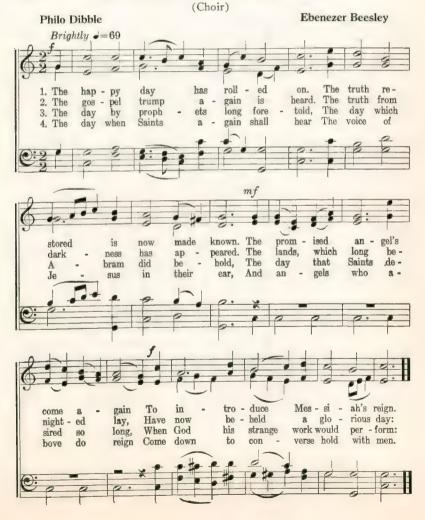

- 4. All needful grace will God bestow And crown that grace with glory too; He gives us all things and withholds No blessings due to upright souls.
- 5. Our God, our King whose sovereign sway The glorious hosts of heaven obey, (And devils at thy presence flee) Blest is the man that trusts in thee!

Hark, Ten Thousand Thousand Voices

- 4. But till that great consummation,
 That bright Sabbath of mankind,
 Till each distant tribe and nation
 Tastes the bliss by God designed.
 Speed the gospel! Let its tidings
 Gladden every human mind!
 Be its silver trumpets sounded;
 Let the joyous echoes roll
 Till a sea of bliss unbounded
 Spreads on earth from pole to pole!
- 5. Then shall come the great Messiah,
 In millennial glory crowned;
 Israel's hope, and earth's desire,
 Now triumphant and renowned.
 Hail, Messiah! Reign forever!
 Heaven to earth reflects the sound
 Heaven and earth with all their regions,
 At his footstool prostrate fall;
 Heaven and earth with all their legions
 Crown Immanuel, Lord of all.

Lo! The Mighty God Appearing

- Gather first my Saints around me, Those who to my covenants stood— Those who humbly sought and found me Through the dying Savior's blood. Blest Redeemer, Dearest Sacrifice to God.
- 5. Now the heavens on high adore him, And his righteousness declare; Sinners perish from before him, But his saints his mercies share. Just his judgments: God, himself the judge, is there.

- Why what we long for most of all Eludes so oft our eager hand, Why hopes are crushed and castles fall, Up there, sometime we'll understand.
- God knows the way; he holds the key; He guides us with unerring hand; Sometimes with tearless eyes we'll see, Yes, there, up there we'll understand.

- 4. Zion, lo, thy day is dawning, Though the darksome shadows swell, Faith and hope prelude the morning; Thou art prospering; all is well; Thou art prospering; Thou art prospering. Thou art prospering; all is well.
- 5. Thy swift messengers are treading Thy high courts where princes dwell, And thy glorious light is spreading; Zion prospers; all is well; Zion prospers; Zion prospers; Zion prospers; all is well.

269 The Morning Breaks; the Shadows Flee
